

THE KING SPEAKS

a Study in the Sermon On The Mount | Daily Devotion
Week 10 - November 12-16
Affairs of the Heart | Matthew 6:19-24

Day 1:
Read Matthew 6:19-24

Why is the way you handle your finances a reflection of what is in your heart? Have you experienced a “defining moment” with your finances?

Day 2:
Read Matthew 6:19-24 and John 17:3

Our devotion and affection is something that comes as we fix our minds on what is important. Exercise your mind today to meditate on John 17:3, as you pursue devotion and loyalty to God today.

Day 3:
Read Luke 12:15, 34

This scripture explains that when we spend our money on something, its value and importance tend to grow in our minds. Since we can become blind to our own materialism and we can live in denial - Jesus says, “Watch out!” Are you on alert to any subtle ways money influences or directs your use of time? Relationships?

Day 4:
Read Colossians 3:5, Ephesians 5:5 and Luke 16:13-15

Paul says greed is a form of idolatry. According to Jesus, idolaters do three things with their idols. They love them, trust them and obey them. “Trustees of Money” feel they have control of their lives and are safe and secure because of their money. What level of trust comes from money?

Day 5:
Read 2 Corinthians 8:9 and 1 Peter 2:9-10

Let your faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ restructure your motivations, identity and view of the world. How does this reframe money in your understanding?
